Canada Lecture: Campus - Monday, March 21, 2016 International Day for the Elimination of Racism

CANADA LECTURE

Canada Lecture: Campus is a one-day cross-Canada event that features four presentations made by leading academics on diversity and unity. Participating students will break off into smaller groups to have productive discussions about fostering inclusion and advancing unity on university campuses.

TOPICS

- Fostering Dialogue Skills Across Cultures and Academic Disciplines
- Overcoming Boundaries and Reinforcing Belonging
- Structural Challenges Facing Interlinguistic Relations
- Building Community on the Diverse Campus

There are two ways to be part of this dialogue:

PARTICIPATE!

Students from four universities across the country will take part in this dialogue together. Get in touch with the lead professors if you are studying at any of the following universities:

- Prof. Robert Daum, University of British Columbia - Vancouver, BC
robert.daum@ubc.ca
- Prof. Elke Winter, University of Ottawa - Ottawa, ON
elke.winter@uottawa.ca
- Prof. Mathieu Wade, Université de Moncton - Moncton, NB
mathieu.wade@umoncton.ca
- Prof. Sinziana Chira, Mount Saint Vincent University - Halifax, NS
s.chira@dal.ca

TUNE IN!

Everyone is welcome to join in this dialogue!

The event will be from 10 am - 1 pm PST, 1 pm - 4 pm EST, 2 pm - 5 pm AST

The event will be broadcasted from all four locations.
